

SASOL FACTS

Sasol Energy

Sasol's Energy business is responsible for the marketing and sales of its liquid fuels and gas through a focused portfolio of customer-facing channels.

Major domestic fuel supplier in South Africa

Sasol supplies approximately 30% of South Africa's domestic fuel needs through its retail and wholesale channels and operates approximately 400 retail sites.

A leading supplier of jet fuel in South Africa

Sasol supplies between 35% and 40% of jet fuel demand at OR Tambo International Airport, South Africa's primary aviation hub.

Beloved mobility and convenience brand

An award-winning Mobility and Convenience business, recognised as the Customer Experience winner in the Forecourt and Convenience categories of the Ask Africa Orange Index from 2021 to 2025, and honoured with the Best Newcomer Loyalty programme award in 2023 from Loyalty Awards South Africa.

Sasol Energy business

Local refining

60% local refining capacity concentrated in South Africa's economic heartland, with Clean Fuels II regulatory compliance on track for July 2027 reaffirming our commitment to sustainability.

Commercial

Commercial business EBITDA has increased more than sixfold over the past three years, driven by disciplined channel optimisation and compelling customer value proposition. Over the same period, commercial jet fuel market share has more than doubled, underscoring strategic focus and market leadership.

Mobility and Convenience

Mobility and Convenience business has more than doubled its EBITDA over the past three years. The average site throughput has increased by more than 40% with market share increasing by 45%.

Technical research

Through world-class research facilities, we are enabling South Africa's energy transition.

